The ceremony will be held in the Grand Ballroom, a space adorned with elegant floral arrangements and soft, romantic lighting. Guests are invited to arrive at 5:30 PM, allowing ample time to be seated before the bride's entrance. Following the ceremony, a cocktail hour will commence, featuring a selection of hors d'oeuvres and beverages. A formal dinner will then be served, featuring a curated menu reflecting the couple's tastes and preferences. Throughout the evening, guests can enjoy live music and dancing, creating a lively and joyous atmosphere. Speeches and toasts will be offered by family and friends, sharing heartfelt sentiments and well wishes for the newlyweds. A professional photographer will capture the special moments of the day, preserving memories for years to come. Attire is formal, encouraging guests to dress in elegant evening wear. The couple requests the pleasure of your company as they embark on this exciting new chapter in their lives.
